Prior to June 1951, VP Kommandeur Ernst was appointed Commanding Officer of the Volkspolizei Dienststelle (VPD) in Dessau-Kochstedt. As a VP Oberrat, he had previously been the Commanding Officer of the former VP Bereitschaft in Muehlhausen and, upon the reorganization of the Volkspolizei, the commanding officer of a VP Kommando in Muehlhausen. The VPD was to move to a tent camp, allegedly in the Coswig area, within the next four months, and would take all its heavy weapons. A series of night practices were recently conducted at the VP post.
